Lapkričio mėn.: Mirusiųjų prisiminimas

Names of beloved deceased may be written in "The Book of the Dead" in the lobby of the Church. Each Sunday during November the book will be carried in procession before Mass, and then placed on the altar. A voluntary contribution to the parish may be made. Please use the designated envelopes. Writing the names on the envelopes is not necessary, since you enter the names in the book.

Lapkričio mėnesį prisimename mūsų mylimus mirusius. Bažnyčios priekyje yra „Mirusiųjų knyga“, kurioje galima įrašyti vardus mylimų mirusiųjų. Kiekvieną lapkričio sekmadienį, knyga bus nešama procesijoje ir bus padedama ant altoriaus, kur liks Mišių metu. Savanorišką auką galima įduoti, naudojant tam skirtus vokelius. Vardų nereikia užrašyti ant vokelių, nes juos knygoje įrašote.

Dear Parishioners and Extended Family Members of St. Peter Lithuanian Parish,

Garbė Jėzui Kristui! Praised be Jesus Christ!

I would like to begin by saying thank you for making the 2014 Annual Parish Bazaar such a success! This year the Bazaar Committee, led by Ms. Daiva Navickas, did their usual fine job of planning and preparation and, together, we made sure it was held in October. Thank you to all who volunteered and participated!

I would like to thank everyone who expressed sympathy and kind wishes to my family and me at the death of my mother, Louise B. Zukas, on August 1. We deeply appreciate all the support you have shown us. We are indeed grateful. May our merciful God bless you and keep you.

The parish's Grand Annual is off to its best start in years. Thank you all who donated right away. If you have not given, please consider a generous gift for the parish.

On October 1st, Sr. Pat Boyle from the Archdiocese's Office of Planning visited our parish to talk with the Parish Pastoral Council and Parish Finance Council. This was the third time she visited, once with these groups and once with members of all three parishes. However, since the planning process is now impacting St. Peter Lithuanian Parish, it was great that she returned. She explained the process well and the members of the Parish Pastoral and Finance Councils had a better understanding and grasp when all was said and done.

On October 15th, members of our parish along with those of St. Vincent de Paul and St. Monica / Augustine Parishes met with Fr. Sepe and Fr. Fitzgerald of the Priest Personnel Board in order to have a better idea what the parishioners of each parish are looking for in the new pastor that will be named for the collaborative. It was also an opportunity to tell our neighbors about our parish and to get to know them better.

On November 16, after the 10:30 Mass, Dr. Michael Ritty, the canon lawyer who assisted St. Peter's 10 years ago during its proposed closing, will be available to answer any questions you may have regarding the Archdiocese's plan of collaboration during kavute in a "town hall" style meeting. Please start thinking of questions to ask.

The final step this year is to find out who will be the pastor of this collaborative on December 15 and then support him. Again, please keep this process in your prayers.

Dėkingai ir nuoširdžiai Kristuje,

Gratefully and Sincerely in Christ,

Rev. Stephen P. Zukas

Pastor
